

Top 10 Reasons to Choose Paul Gauguin Cruises

- 1 | Small, intimate, and award-winning: One of the highest rated ships year over year, the 330-guest m/s Paul Gauguin is the longest continually sailing luxury cruise ship in the South Pacific.
- 2 | Extraordinary value in luxury cruising: Our all-inclusive fares allow for a relaxed and carefree ambience on board.
- 3 | Exceptional service: A crew-to-guest ratio of 1:1.5 is among the highest at sea and features our own troupe of Tahitian host/entertainers who live aboard the ship year-round.
- 4 | Exclusive retreats: Revel in our private beaches and islets off the coasts of Bora Bora* and Taha'a.
- 5 | Luxurious oceanview accommodations: Butler-serviced suites and spacious staterooms – nearly 70% with private balcony – include European linens and in-room refrigerator with beverages replenished daily.
- 6 | Three fine-dining venues and 24-hour room service: Savor expertly prepared cuisine presented by our knowledgeable and attentive staff.
- 7 | Watersports: Our onboard marina offers kayaks and paddleboards for your use in select ports and at destination beaches; complimentary snorkeling equipment for your use throughout your cruise; and optional PADI SCUBA diving programs.
- 8 | Enrichment program: Sailings are enhanced with presentations by local naturalists and/or other experts, and special guests join select voyages.
- 9 | More unique itinerary options than any other luxury line in the region: Our 7- to 14-night voyages feature as many as three overnights on a single sailing including Bora Bora, Moorea, Fakarava, and Papeete.
- 10 | Moana Explorer Program: In partnership with the Te mana o te moana conservation foundation, kids ages 6 to 15 enjoy educational and fun explorations; complimentary on select summer and holiday sailings. Plus, kids up to 17 years of age sail free as the third guest in select staterooms.
