New York, NY – February 20, 2025 – Today, Paul Gauguin Cruises, French Polynesia's destination expert and winner of Condé Nast Traveler's Readers' Choice Awards 2024 Best Small Cruise, announced its 2027 voyages. The cruise line will offer 34 voyages of 7 to 20 nights exploring the Society Islands, Tuamotus, Marquesas, Cook Islands, and South Pacific on 10 unique itineraries, including a Boutique Crossing Collection of three 13-, 17-, and 20-night journeys between Singapore, Australia, Fiji, and Bali. The enriching itineraries accommodate no more than 330 guests aboard the beloved m/s Paul Gauguin, which will emerge from its multi-million-dollar refurbishment this April. Guests who book early will enjoy fares starting at $2,960 per guest, inclusive of Bonus Savings up to 30 percent.

"Our 2027 voyages represent the art of exploration in its finest form, from our immersive 7-night itineraries through the Society Islands to our longer Boutique Crossing Collection voyages of up to 20 nights exploring Fiji, Bali, and beyond," said Samuel Chamberlain, CEO of Americas for PONANT EXPLORATIONS GROUP, parent company of Paul Gauguin Cruises. "As French Polynesia's destination expert, we craft each itinerary to offer artfully authentic insight into every destination; strategic overnights and extended port stays aren't just stops on a map—they're gateways to deeper understanding, allowing our guests to experience these destinations as insiders rather than visitors. This is the difference that comes from having called these waters home for more than 25 years, and why discerning travelers consistently choose us for their South Pacific discovery."

Of the 34 voyages offered in 2027, more than 40 percent are 7-night journeys, making it easier for discerning travelers with busy schedules to experience the iconic beauty of Tahiti and the Society Islands—an unforgettable bucket-list destination. The balance of 10-, 11-, and 14-night voyages explore the atolls of the Tuamotus, the mystique of the Marquesas, and the unspoiled, tropical beauty of the Cook Islands and Tonga. The line will once again offer its Boutique Crossing Collection of three singular extended journeys exploring Oceania, Indonesia, and Melanesia. Itineraries are distinguished by overnights and extended stays in iconic isles, opening up a world of immersive discovery.
